Founded in 1988, Montreal's Repercussion Theatre is best known for its annual Shakespeare-in-the-Park summer tour. As a professional theatre company and non-profit arts organization, our core values are artistic excellence, social relevance and accessibility. Repercussion Theatre is committed to equity and diversity in its exploration of classical theatre in today's world, and so we encourage applicants from all cultural backgrounds, abilities and gender identities to apply.

The Web Developer will report to the Director of Communications and carry out the following tasks remotely:

- Review and refresh the company's current website (organisation of data and consistency of coding);
- Revise digital content management strategies and suggest best practices
- Partner with Archivist to create/host/mediate digital archive
- Bilingualism preferred in order to review consistency of English and French versions of the website

Necessary Skills and Abilities:

- Bilingual (Excellent English language / grammar skills, written & oral; intermediate level written French)
- Strong background and experience using WordPress and DiviBuilder
- Attention to detail, and strong communication & organizational skills
- Ability to work independently and remotely

Eligibility

Please note that applicants must be eligible for the Canada Summer Jobs program by meeting all of the following criteria:

- be between 15 and 30 years of age at the start of the employment
- be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or person to whom refugee protection has been conferred under the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act for the duration of the employment; and

- have a valid Social Insurance Number at the start of employment and be legally entitled to work in Canada in accordance with relevant provincial or territorial legislation and regulations.

Please email a cover letter and resume to Linnea Jimison, General Manager at info@repercussiontheatre.com by Friday, August 7 at 5pm. We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.
